Market Price is the price investors can buy and sell ETF shares for in the stock market and is used to calculate market return. It is based on the price at the NYSE exchange market close. This is when NAV is determined for most ETFs. If shares trade at another time, the return may differ. Market and NAV returns assume that dividends and capital gain distributions have been reinvested in the Fund at market price and NAV, respectively.

In addition, the Pacific Global Senior Loan ETF was the successor to the investment performance of AdvisorShares Pacific Asset Enhanced Floating Rate ETF, a series of AdvisorShares Trust, as a result of the reorganization of the series of AdvisorShares Trust into a series of Pacific Global ETF that occurred on December 27, 2019 (together, the "Predecessor Fund"). The Predecessor Fund commenced operations on February 18, 2015.

From the Predecessor Fund's inception to October 22, 2021, the Predecessor Fund invested at least 80% of its net assets (plus any borrowings for investment purposes) in senior secured floating rate loans. After the reorganization, the Fund invests at least 80% of its net assets (plus any borrowings for investment purposes) in senior secured floating rate loans and other adjustable rate securities. Other than each Fund's respective 80% policy and the associated risks with investing in adjustable rate securities, the Funds had similar investment objectives, strategies, and policies.
